POPE FRANCIS GENERAL AUDIENCE HIGHLIGHTS: BE COURAGEOUS WITNESSES OF THE GOSPEL

Vatican City, 22 May 2013 (VIS) - Pope Francis dedicated his Wednesday general audience catechesis to the Holy Spirit, without whom, “the Church could not live or carry out the mission that Jesus has entrusted us with, of going out and making disciples of all nations. Evangelization is the Church’s mission, not just of a few, but my, your, our mission... To evangelize, then, it is necessary to open ourselves once again to the action of God’s Spirit, without fear of what He might ask us or where He might lead us. Let us entrust ourselves to him. He will enable us to live and to bear witness to our faith. He will illuminate the hearts of those we meet. This was the experience of Pentecost: of the Apostles gathered with Mary in the Upper Room.”

“The Holy Spirit, descending upon the Apostles, makes them go out of the room in which they had locked themselves out of fear. He makes them go out of themselves and transforms them into heralds and witnesses’ of the mighty acts of God”. This transformation, wrought by the Holy Spirit, is reflected in the crown that rushed to the scene, coming ‘from every nation under heaven’
